THE SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

FOCUS: Following the commands of the Lord brings life and joy.

LITURGY OF THE WORD: In the first reading, Peter speaks of fearing the Lord and doing his work, and the Holy Spirit comes upon the believers. Peter commands even the Gentiles who have received the Holy Spirit to be baptized. In John's First Letter, he writes of loving one another because God is love, and he abides in us when we love. Jesus explains in the Gospel that we are commanded to love as he has loved – by laying down our lives for each other.

Day of Service

On any given day, in just about every Catholic school, students are involved in the effort to help others. From raising funds for worthy non-profits, to visiting nursing homes and stocking food pantries, there is no limit to the many acts of charity and kindness that are undertaken as part of the Catholic school experience. Over the next few weeks, all Catholic elementary schools in the Diocese of Trenton will be dedicating themselves to a single service project on April 27, and the beneficiaries will be sick children and their families in about a dozen hospitals spanning Burlington, Mercer, Monmouth and Ocean Counties. The aim is to make their stay at the hospital be more pleasant and comfortable.

Anyone interested in supporting "Hearts to Hospitals: Hearts to Lead - Hands to Help," is invited to bring NEW items or gift cards to the lobby of Saint James School. Among the desired items are crayons, colored pencils, art supplies, sticker or coloring books, small toys, small puzzles/games, and gift cards are also perfect. The fundraiser collection is now through April 29. Please help. Visit mysaintjames.com for more info

Saintly Quotations

Give something, however small, to the one in need. For it is not small to one who has nothing. Neither is it small to God, if we have given what we could.
