THE SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

FOCUS: Jesus' last thoughts and prayers are focused on his disciples as he prepares to face the cross.

LITURGY OF THE WORD: The first reading from Acts recalls how after the Ascension, the disciples return to Jerusalem and gather together in continuous prayer as they await the coming of the Holy Spirit. The second reading reminds us that when we suffer, we share in the sufferings of Christ. In the Gospel, taken from the farewell discourse, Jesus prays for his disciples as the time for his glorification draws near.

Congratulations to all of our 5th grade students who have successfully graduated from our 10-week program on May 12. As many of us are aware New Jersey is faced with the devastating effects of illicit drugs. New proactive steps need to be taken to help stop the issues before they begin. The Red Bank Police Department believes that education, awareness, and community involvement are crucial in aspiring our youth to become healthy, educated, and successful members of our schools and community. The lessons in the program introduce and review a series of skills to prepare our children to make healthy choices and resist unhealthy behaviors in life; including bullying, alcohol, and drug use.

We would also like to congratulate our 2017 L.E.A.D. essay contest winners Ellie Kopec and Christopher Ryan. Red Bank Police Officer and D.A.R.E. moderator Dawn Fields along with Chief of Police Darren McConnell presented each of the contest winners with a beautiful new bicycle.
