THE TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FOCUS: Jesus, who is the fulfillment of God's laws and prophets, tells us how to live out God's commandments.

LITURGY OF THE WORD: In the first reading, Moses calls on God's people to witness God's blessings and presence in their midst by keeping his laws and commandments. In the second reading, James asks God's people to follow the Word of God and not the ways of the world. In the Gospel, Jesus warns the Pharisees, scribes and the crowd not to simply observe human tradition and rituals. Rather, they need to look into their hearts and clean out evil thoughts.

The Catholic University of America is unique among universities in the US – even among Catholic universities. Established by Pope Leo XIII and the U.S. bishops in 1887, it is the national university of the Catholic Church. In addition to alumni who live in your diocese, more than one third of the U.S. bishops and 12,000 priests and religious are CU alumni, including 5 of the 6 American Cardinal Archbishops. Through its 12 schools and 23 research centers located in the nation’s capital, every year the University provides an education grounded in the Catholic intellectual tradition to almost 7,000 students. Next weekend, we will be taking up the National Collection for CU. Your investment will enable the University to continue to support the Church and to advance its work of preparing the next generation of leadership, both religious and lay, of our Church and nation.
