THE TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FOCUS: We must be prepared to heed God's loving call.

LITURGY OF THE WORD: In the first reading, Isaiah celebrates the generous and merciful nature of God, who blesses his people with an abundance of good gifts and saves them from sin and death.

In the second reading from Philippians, St. Paul teaches that it is through our faith in Jesus that we draw strength. The Gospel parable finds a king inviting guests to his son's wedding banquet, only to realize that most are not fit to join the celebration.

Healing the Wounds of Abortion: Rachel's Vineyard Post-Abortive Retreat

The psychological and spiritual wounds of abortion can be sharp, deep and crippling. You may feel a deep numbness and may not be able to name the pain or recognize any of the symptoms. It can also have a devastating impact on the father or grandparents of the aborted child and friend/s of the mother. You do not have to continue to hide in shame and fear. Rachel's Vineyard's Retreat is a chance to focus on this painful time in your life through a supportive non-judgmental process, in an atmosphere of confidentiality, understanding, and compassion. It is designed to help both women and men experience the mercy and compassion of God.

If you have suffered through an abortion and have isolated yourself from healing and forgiveness, you might consider attending one our retreat weekends. For more information, contact Judy Warenkiewicz @ 732-536-6871. All inquiries are strictly confidential
