THE THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FOCUS: Jesus, our perfect example, calls us to live a life driven by love for God and our neighbor.

LITURGY OF THE WORD: In today’s first reading, we hear Moses reminding us to observe the commandments of our Father, especially to love God first. In the second reading, we see Jesus as the perfect sacrifice who has redeemed us. And in today’s Gospel, Jesus adds the second of the two greatest commandments: to love your neighbor as yourself.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

The Catholic Church professes and teaches that the anointing of the sick is one of the seven sacraments of the New Testament, that it was instituted by Christ our Lord, “intimated in Mark (6:13) and through James, the apostle and brother of the Lord, recommended to the faithful and made known: ‘Is there anyone sick among you? Let him send for the presbyters of the Church and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. The prayer of faith will save the sick man and the Lord will raise him up. If he has committed any sins, they will be forgiven him’ (James 5:14-15).”

Vatican Council II adds the following: “ ‘Extreme unction,’ which may also and more properly be called ‘anointing of the sick,’ is not a sacrament for those only who are at the point of death. Hence, as soon as any one of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for that person to receive this sacrament has certainly already arrived.’ ”

“The sacrament may be repeated if the sick person recovers from being anointed and then again falls ill or if during the same illness the person’s condition becomes more serious.”

“A sick person may be anointed before surgery whenever a serious illness is the reason for the surgery.”

Elderly people may be anointed if they become notably weakened even though no serious illness is present.”
