lot of goody bags for guests at a Holiday Express Party. Please bring all WRAPPED CANDY that you couldn't possibly need to the Saint James School's lobby and drop it in the HOLIDAY EXPRESS BOX November 1 - 16.

COMMUNITY NEWS

The St. James Senior Citizens Club meets the 1st & 3rd Wednesday of each month at the Red Bank Senior Center at 1 PM. Call Sr. Ethel for more information, 732/741-0724.

Knights of Columbus Council # 525 would like to thank all the parishioners of St. James for their generous support of the Council's activities to help those in need. The support for our recent raffle was a testimony to the caring and generosity of all of you. The proceeds of the raffle allowed the Council to purchase 100 brand new coats for children in the schools in the Red Bank area. Under a national program sponsored by the Knights of Columbus we were able to purchase the coats at a substantial discount from Columbia Sportswear.

Mayor Pasquale Menna and Congressman Chris Smith were on hand for the delivery of 50 new coats with a second delivery to be made upon receipt of an additional 50. Unfortunately, the need exceeded the initial estimate, so additional coats were ordered. The coats will be distributed to children in grades K-8 regardless of the school they attend in the Red Bank area.

Thank you again for your support. The Knights will be selling Keep Christ in Christmas magnets, along with other religious magnets, again this year. As always, our proceeds will be donated to those in need and to support parish causes.

Follow Council #525 on Facebook at www.facebook.com/KofC525/. Interested in exploring membership with the Knights? We urge you to do so by contacting Thomas Wiczerak, Grand Knight at thomas@wiczerzak.net or Jim Booth, PGK, at JRB1751@gmail.com

God Bless you one and all.

Rachel's Vineyard: The psychological and spiritual wounds of abortion can be sharp, deep and crippling. You may feel a deep numbness and may not be able to name the pain or recognize any of the symptoms. It can also have a devastating impact on the father or grandparents of the aborted child and friend/s of the mother. You do not have to continue to hide in shame and fear. Rachel's Vineyard's Retreat is a chance to focus on this painful time in your life through a supportive non-judgmental process, in an atmosphere of confidentiality, understanding, and compassion. It is designed to help both women and men experience the mercy and compassion of God.

If you have suffered through an abortion and have isolated yourself from healing and forgiveness, you might consider attending one our retreat weekends.

INTENTIONS OF HIS HOLINESS, POPE FRANCIS I FOR NOVEMBER

Pope’s Intention for Evangelization: In the Service of Peace. That the language of love and dialogue may always prevail over the language of conflict.

Catholic Teaching on Cremation:

Cremation is permitted for Catholics as long as it is not chosen in denial of Christian teaching on the Resurrection and the sacredness of the human body. Although cremation is permitted, Catholic teaching continues to stress the preference for burial or entombment of the body of the deceased. This is done in imitation of the burial of Jesus’ body.

When cremation is chosen for a good reason, the full course of the Order of Christian Funerals should still be celebrated, including the Vigil Service (wake), the Funeral Liturgy, and the Rite of Committal.

The Church clearly prefers and urges that the body be present during the Vigil and Funeral Mass, and that if cremation is to be used, it take place following the Rite of Final Commendation.

The cremated human remains would then be interred during the Rite of Committal. However, the diocesan bishop may for a good reason permit the cremated remains to be present for the Funeral Liturgy.

The cremated remains of a body are to be buried or entombed, preferably in a Catholic cemetery, and using the rites provided by the Order of Christian Funerals. The following are not considered to be reverent dispositions that the Church requires: scattering cremated remains, dividing cremated remains and keeping cremated remains in the home.

For further information see the 1997 statement of the Bishops’ Committee on the Liturgy, Reflections on the Body, Cremation, and Catholic Funeral Rites, available from USCCB publications (800/235-8722).
